

I was shocked at the half-time Superbowl show broadcast on CBS Sunday. Not only was the display of Ms. Jackson breast indecent, so was much of the half-time entertainment. Many of the acts were very suggestive. Those managing the broadcast should have known from the practice that it was sexually suggestive, regardless whether her breast were displayed during practice. This was very inappropriate for the audience, did not fall within our community's standards (as seen on our local CBS affiliate in Cincinnati), and was wrong. I was glad to hear that you were investigating this incident and hope that if laws were violated, you will pursue the course of justice.
